Speedometer Record—Episode Five

"FIGHTING MAD"

"Speed" comes to in time to lasso Lucy with his lariat and drag her from the quicksand. They then start back to the hotel. Arriving, "Speed" conceals himself in Lucy's room. The villains learn of this and every possible exit is watched.

"Speed" overcomes the guards and descends to the basement by clinging to the cable underneath an elevator. In the basement he encounters the detectives, but knocks them out after a fierce fight.

"Speed" then sees Edwin Stanbury about to leave in a car for Pious Pedro's, where Sprague is hidden. Clinging to the bottom of the car, he also rides to the place. Battling his way past the guards, "Speed" makes an entrance to the house.

"I've helped you—now you've got to give me the girl!"

Hearing this, "Speed" knows Pious Pedro means Lucy, and he becomes enraged. At the same time he sees Sprague and the melee begins. "Speed" is overcome and locked in the tower of the house. He sees he is high from the ground, with the branches of a tree a distance away. As he watches he sees Pious Pedro leaving and thinking he is going after Lucy, "Speed" climbs to the window ledge, poises himself for a moment and leaps for the branches of the tree.
